

In Memory of Lieutenant
Charles Carroll Wood

Who died on November 11, 1899
in
Belmont, South Africa

Lieutenant Wood
is buried at
West End Cemetery (Kimberley), South Africa

Personal Information

Charles graduated from the Royal Military College (RMC) in 1896. He was a member of the Loyal North Lancashire and served in the army. He was the first Canadian Officer to fall in battle during the Boer War. He is commemorated on the RMC Memorial Arch in Kingston, Ontario.