

VETERAN AND FAMILY WELL-BEING FUND

Background

Research and innovation is vital to continually improving the well-being of Veterans and their families.

The Government of Canada's Veteran and Family Well-Being Fund provides grants and contributions to private, public or academic organizations to conduct research and implement initiatives and projects that support the well-being of Veterans and their families.

Veterans Affairs Canada is investing in ideas with impact. The fund will support the creation of innovative services and supports -- from suicide prevention research, to initiatives that help homeless Veterans, to projects that enable Veterans to make smoother transitions to life after service.

Quick Facts

155 applications were received seeking more than $109M. The application process for 2019-2020 will open early in 2019.

The fund will promote increased knowledge and understanding through research, and the development of innovative, community-based services to address new and emerging needs within the Veteran community.

Veterans Affairs Canada will award $3 million annually in grants and contributions.

The Veteran and Family Well-Being Fund is part of a suite of benefits announced in Budget 2017 to focus on the mental, physical and general well-being of Veterans and their families.
