

Her story:

Canadian women in uniform

Research activity

From nursing in muddy field tents to flying fighter jets, the roles women have played in the Canadian military have evolved over time. Learn more by watching Her story: Canadian women in uniform. Work alone or with a partner to answer these questions about women, organizations and events featured in the video.

Who was Georgina Fane Pope?

Who was Mary Greyeyes?

What happened to the Llandoverly Castle?

When was the Royal Canadian Air Force Women's Division established?

What voting rights did some women receive in the First World War?

Who was Eva May Roy?

What roles did women fill as volunteers with the Canadian Women's Army Corps (CWAC)?

How many women served in the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service (WRCNS or "Wrens")?

Veterans Affairs Canada
Anciens Combattants Canada

Canada

In what year were women first accepted in the Royal Military College of Canada?

Who was Nichola Goddard?

What were Dee Brasseur and Jane Foster the first Canadian women to do?

In what year was Mary Cameron-Kelly inducted into Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame?

Who is Sandra Perron? What is the name of the 2025 movie made about her experiences in the Canadian Armed Forces?

What is the name of the ship Josée Kurtz commanded in 2009? In what year did she become commandant of the Royal Military College?

What military medal was Ashley Collette awarded for her actions during Canada's mission in Afghanistan?

Who is Jennie Carignan?

Tell HER STORY

Research one of the women you learned about or any other woman who has served in Canada's armed forces. Create a poster or biography about her life and career. Include at least one photo and a minimum of 150 words of text.